

Application for Student Emergency Aid for Continuance of Studies

This program is aimed at students whose lives have been financially impacted by a reduction of their household/part-time income due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Students experiencing difficulties continuing their studies at universities etc. are eligible, upon application and screening, to receive a cash payment of JPY 100,000.

Please see the attached outline and apply online if you are interested (no physical application is necessary). Please note that there is not much time to apply.

Application Deadline: January 13th (Thu), 2022, 5:00PM (JST)

Note: You must apply using a DCMail account. Applications are NOT accepted by postal mail or in person.

Note: Recipients of the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) scholarship who received a scholarship payment on December 10, 2021 (and received a notice from the Student Affairs Information System on December 21) need not apply.

Application Form

<https://www.bureau.tohoku.ac.jp/jyoho/aid/>

Program Overview

MEXT website: Student Emergency Aid for Continuance of Studies

https://www.mext.go.jp/a_menu/koutou/hutankeigen/mext_00002.html

Inquiries

Tohoku University Student Support Counseling Center
(Education and Student Support Department)

*Please send questions via the Inquiry Form. Replies will be posted on the website linked below.

*Phone inquiries are NOT available.

Inquiry Form

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdpJ1sMCNwD8qA1-yNZNuNUTXFnZFEaPW1yB3HCuZZtxvtcxw/viewform>

Answers from the Counseling Center

(Closed December 29 (Wed.) to January 3 (Mon.), weekends, and holidays.)

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSehtEw87I7XICAI7_IZghd9vxHQ8_9p0E0b6fJJM1ERj81phw/viewform